

Grégory Grams
Senior SteriPro Consultant

Phone: +32 87 307084

Email: GGrams@eu.sterigenics.com

CONSULTANT INTRODUCTION

Grégory Grams joined Sterigenics in 2006 as Validation Manager for the Petit-Rechain facility. He has been responsible for development of new cycles, customer validation and R&D projects.

Grégory joined the SteriPro Consulting Group in 2012 and he is leading validation, development and cycle design/improvements in the EMEAA regions. He is also actively giving training seminars in trade shows and for customer sessions.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Ethylene oxide validations
- Cycle development
- Medical device consulting
- Gas chromatography method validation
- Failure investigations

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

A3P Pharma trade Association (France, Belgium, Switzerland, North Africa)

EDUCATION & CERTIFICATIONS

Master in Industrial Chemistry from Liège (B) Engineering School (1997)

Business Administration Certification– Cambridge (UK) 2004

PUBLICATIONS

“Why use ethylene oxide (EO) for sterilizing medical devices” – Medical Design & Outsourcing 2016 - G. Grams / A. Gillet/ M. Padilla

“A Practical approach to address the requirements of ISO11135:2014 - Sterilization of health-care products – Ethylene Oxide – Requirements for the development, validation and routine control of a sterilization process for medical devices” - Peter Strain, Grégory Grams, Stefan Reisbacher, Seagle XU